He and _____ (Y1B/W1/, born ____ 17__ in _____ Co., __., daughter of _____ and _____ (_____) _____) one son. She died in Wales on ____ 18__ in _____ Co., __. She was buried in _____ Co., __. Roger and his son William came to America in 1841. They left Bristol and sailed to New York six weeks later and then up the Hudson to Albany. They took the Erie Canal to Buffalo and then sailed to Cleveland. They took the Ohio Canal from Winchester to Lockbourne and then up the Canal to Columbus into Sciota. They landed at Broadstreet. Other sources list their arrival as 1844. According to Emma Reynolds Sims, Elizabeth Bowen was employed to care for William Reynolds as a baby when Roger and his young son came to the U.S. and Ohio. Elizabeth Bowen lived with Roger and William in Columbus, caring for the young child, and then, because of the community talk about Roger and her living together, she married Roger Reynolds. Emma also said that William was born out of wedlock and that the mother did not want the child. Roger then took responsibility for William and raised him. Roger married 2.) Elizabeth Burd Bowen (Y1B/W2/, born 16 Jul 1826 near Manchester, England (other sources say North Wales), daughter of Richard and Hannah (Burd) Bowen) on 09 Jul 1844 in Columbus, Franklin Co., OH. by A. Patton, Justice of the Peace. There is a Reynoldsburg in Franklin County near where they settled. She had worked as a domestic before their marriage and Roger worked as a mason. They appeared in the 1850 Franklin Co., OH. census in the First Ward of Columbus. When Roger's employer died and left no records, Roger was forced to use his own accounts of his labor to try to collect his salary from the estate. As the estate had no money, but did have land, Roger accepted ninety acres of heavily forested land three miles southwest of Hilliard in 1851 in Brown Township. The family cleared the land and built a log cabin and a large barn. They were members of the Welch Congregational Church in Brown Twp. In 1856 Roger bought 100 acres of land in Norwich Twp., Franklin Co., OH. (V3015) which was a part of the Virginia Military District west of the Scioto River. The family appeared in the 1860 Franklin Co., OH. in Norwich Township. Roger sold his land in Franklin Co., OH. They moved to Sugar Creek Twp., Putnam Co., OH. on 10 Apr 1867 where they bought a 416 acre farm with only 40 cleared acres from Jacob Gander. The farm had a brick house with eight rooms, a double log barn, a small frame barn, and a one-room log house. As he still owed about three thousand dollars on this farm, but he managed to clear two hundred acres. However, half the family came down with typhoid fever and the medical expenses and cost of extra help on the farm prevented him from having his farm clear of debt before he died. Roger was active in the Calvinistic Methodist Church and Republican. Roger died of "lung fever" at the age of 80y, 5m, 10 d on 24 Jun 1881 in Sugar Creek Twp., Putnam Co., OH. Elizabeth sold the chattels on the farm and applied it to the debt. Seven of her children then bought out the interest in the estate from the other children, with each receiving one-seventh of the land and the remaining debt. Elizabeth moved in with her son Evan and daughter Mary on 14 Feb 1894. Elizabeth died of consumption at the age of 74y, 2m, 4d on 20 Sep 1900 in Sugar Creek Twp., Putnam Co., OH. In 1881, Mattie and her children Charles, Estella, and Edward Reynolds came to Kansas to visit Mattie's parents who moved in 1878. Mattie persuaded William to move to Kansas so she could be nearer her parents. In March 1882 they chartered a railroad car, built a partition in it with one half for livestock and the other for furniture and moved to Smith Co., KS. They were met at Cedar where the railroad ended. They rented a farm from a Mr. Reinhart where they lived for five years. They then rented 400 acres from a Mr. Fischer and 80 more from a Mr. Taylor where they lived seventeen years. The house had one framed room and one sod room added. William added another sod room, making a total of three rooms for ten people. They grew corn, which sold for less than the cost of coal, so they often burned corn. The children attended Summerview School District 59, less than a mile away. They also attended church in the school building. William served as a board member in 1894-5.

In December 1895 William and his mother-in-law Sarah (Foster) Morgan returned to Ohio to visit family.

The family later moved to Thomas Co., KS. in Apr 1903. William and his daughter Estella bought 560 acres of land for $2.50 per acre at an auction of school lands.
