We, subscribers, Natives and late inhabitants of the Palatinate upon the Rhine, and places adjacent, having transported ourselves and families into the Province of Pennsylvania, a colony subject to the Crown of Great Britain, in hopes and expectation of finding a retreat and peaceable settlement therein, Do solemnly promise and engage, that we will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Present Majesty King George the Second, and his successors, Kings of Great Britain and will be faithful to the Proprietor of this Province; and that we will demean ourselves peacefully to all His said Majesty's subjects, and strictly observe and conform to the Laws of England and of this Province, to the utmost of our power and the best of our understanding.

Palatines imported in the Ship the Winter Galley, Edward Paynter, Comr, from Rotterdam, but last from Deal [England]. Qualified 5th Sept, 1738.
